Travellers to this wonderful town have the benefit of swimming in pristine seas, relaxing on the golden beaches and soaking up the sun and partying till late in the night. Due to the popularity Hikkaduwa has gained among the tourists the fishing village has emerged as a developing city, with many road side restaurants, souvenir boutiques and the developing nightlife at the beach front. Hikkaduwa is famed for its coral reef; this shallow fringing reef has an average depth of five meters, making snorkelling and diving popular recreational activities during the day, famed as the hot and happening spot in the coastal belt it provides many entertainment options in the night.

In tropical Sri Lanka, the phrase 'Down South' almost always translates to a mesmerising weekend in Hikkaduwa – the island's well known bohemian utopia. Enter another state of mind at Hikka Tranz by Cinnamon. This newly refurbished, lavish resort combines the avant-garde with absolute luxury.
